

ALL SAINTS' CE PRIMARY SCHOOL SUMMER TERM NEWSLETTER

Which special person would you invite to a banquet if you could choose anyone? This has been the subject of our worship this week, looking particularly at people who inspire us—and they aren't necessarily famous people, quite often they are family. We started the week learning about one of Jesus' parables about the Banquet which contained the important message that 'We are all welcome here' - Jesus yet again setting the example as an inspiring leader. Do read below who Year 4 and Year 6 decided would be worthy of a banquet invitation!

We are, of course, at the start of a long week, with the first of the May Bank Holidays on Monday. And, next week, as previously mentioned, we will mark the Coronation of King Charles III on Friday. Full details of what the children will need to wear, make and bring for that day are in the letter sent out with this newsletter. I wish you all a very peaceful, restful and enjoyable weekend.

I would invite Ethan Voris because he is the creator of Kung Fu Panda. Kung Fu Panda is one of my favourite films because it is very funny and extremely child friendly. My favourite character is Po because I would say I am a bit like him. I like eating and I am also extremely clumsy just like him. I would like to ask him "Where did you get your inspiration from?" "How did you get the idea of the scadoosh?" "Did you think Kung Fu Panda would have been as successful as it is now?" "Are you going to make a fourth film and if you are what would be the plot twist?" I would cook him some dumplings because Po's favourite food is dumplings.

I would invite Jack Grealish because: he inspires me to become a better athlete. The three questions I would ask him about his career such as, how many trophies he's won and many more. The three questions I would ask: "If you could play with one current player with who would it be?" "Would you rather, win the Premier League and you get the Golden Boot or score the winning penalty to win the World Cup but that is the only goal you score for them in that World Cup?"

2. Mrs Sharp. The reason I would pick Mrs Sharp is she is always there for every one. I know it is her job to help, but she does it so whole heartedly. She has been so helpful and generous with her time. She completely lives up to the saying by Gandhi. A good leader is not how many followers they have but how many leaders they create. My questions would be:

"Who inspires you?"

"What was your favorite book as a child?"

"What did you want to be as a child?"

"I would say to

Mrs Sharp, Thank you
