Welcome back to school and the final term of this academic year. I know it doesn't feel like the summer term, just yet, but we will hope for an improvement in the weather soon. It has been a lovely return to school, with children settling back into their learning very well. They all seem to have grown taller over the Easter holidays! The highlight of the week was, undoubtedly, our wonderful Easter Service on Wednesday. KS2 treated us, through words, music and song, to a moving retelling of the Easter Passion. You can read below what it meant to the children who took part. Another important faith event is taking place today; Eid al-Fitr marks the end of Ramadan and to all our Muslim staff, pupils and parents we say 'Eid Mubarak!' We hope you have all enjoyed a very special celebration. Please do take note of new dates below and the information about our special Coronation Celebration Day on May 5th. My best wishes for a lovely weekend. Ms Wood

EASTER SERVICE

'I think Mylo's solo of Gethsemane went very well. His voice was even louder than when he sang We Three Kings of Orient. Maya and Toby did their duet of Calling my name.' By Luca—Y4

'I was very satisfied after the celebration because I love singing!' By Alex L—Y4

'The Easter Service was very fun and all the rehearsals have made me more confident in my singing.' By Freddie—Y4

'I really liked everyone singing together because it made me happy. I think the service was good!' By Ronnie—Y4

'I enjoyed the readings because they were interesting and I learnt a lot.' By Ricco—Y4

'The people that played the musical instruments were really good, they added detail to the songs.' By Bella - Y4

Our last Easter Service at All Saints'

'I enjoyed all the songs from the Easter Service, I will miss everyone singing like that.' By Albert—Y6

'I liked the service and found it a bit relaxing just to do some singing. It was fun and I will miss the school Eucharists.' By Xanthe—Y6

'I enjoyed the service because it was so relaxed and not at all stressful. I am going to really miss the services and I hope I carry on with them in secondary school' By Maddie W.—Y6

'I liked singing. I was quite happy to give the notices as Music Captain.' By Huw—Y6

'It was really good to see all our hard work come together. I really enjoyed it.' By Amber—Y6

'I really enjoyed playing the flute at my last Easter Service and the singing from every class sounded beautiful in the church. All the hard work paid off.' By Elektra—Y6

'I liked the service because, even if you didn't know all the lines of the song, it didn't really matter because all the lines were on the projector. It was the best ever service I've ever done and it was also the last ever Easter service I'll ever do!' By Cameron—Y6

Coronation Celebration Friday 5th May

We are in the final phase of organising our special Coronation Celebration. As I think we have mentioned, this is going to be a joint celebration with the pupils and staff of St Mary's school. Final details will be coming out shortly, but the celebration will include a picnic lunch in the church gardens, then a carousel of activities in the gardens and our playground. Dress code will be red, white and blue and each child will be asked to design their own crown; these will be need to be sustainable, using recycled materials and should reflect some of the things the King is passionate about. More details will follow shortly but this will give you a chance to start thinking about your design.

To: Mr RV from Ms Wood for bringing together a beautiful and moving Easter Service, showcasing the musical talents of All Saints' pupils, both instrumental and vocal. Thank you!

EID

Today is a special day for Muslims because we celebrate Eid where we meet or call family and friends. We eat lots of delicious food and play lots of music in celebration. It is a special day where Muslims can have a day off and spend time altogether. When we see our family and friends we say “Eid Mubarak” which means congratulations! We also receive presents, which makes us very happy and joyful! While we are altogether we also take the time to read the Quran and think about other people who are in need so during Eid we also donate some money to Charity. We just want to wish everyone a happy day! A wonderful Eid! Eid Mubarak! – By Milan—Y6 & Dahlia—Y5

EID AT NURSERY

We have been busy in Nursery this week. We loved hearing Mr Ikhlef telling us about his special celebration - Eid, and finding out the different customs people around the world have when marking this event. We made special stars sun catchers to help Mr Ikhlef with the celebration! On Friday we read a story that our friend Skye brought in, that shows the beauty of being different. We were inspired by her book and made some colourful rainbows to celebrate all our differences.
